WOUNDS HIMSELF ON HUNT.

Mr. J. V. Wallace May Lose Hand as Result of Accident.

Having shot himself in the hand and wrist with a double-barrelled shotgun, which was loaded with buckshot, Mr. John V. Wallace, the manager of the Cable company, of Charleston, is now lying at the St. Francis Xavier infirmary here, awaiting the decision of the attendant physicians as to whether the amputation of his left hand will be necessary.

The accident was a peculiar one. Day before yesterday several gentlemen went from Charleston to Summerville on a hunt, as the guests of Mr. L. I. Meyers. On Monday they shot birds, and after the day's sport many of them returned to the city, but among those who stayed was Mr. Wallace.

A large deer hunt was the program for yesterday, and Mr. Wallace was placed on a stand, accompanied only by his 5-year-old son, Vernon. The stand at which he was put was about two miles from Mr. Meyers's residence, and six miles from Summerville. The child says that Mr. Wallace was sitting with both barrels of his gun cocked, the weapon resting across his knees. He cocked the gun, the child stated, when he heard the baying of the hounds near him.

Suddenly, with a thunderous report, one of the barrels of the gun went off, and Mr. Wallace's left hand and wrist were horribly mutilated. The boy screamed and soon some of the party arrived on the scene, but the injured man was forced to ride the two miles to the house of Mr. Myers, where a temporary dressing was made for the hand. He was then carried in a buggy by Mr. Meyers to Summerville, where he stayed at the house of Dr. A. H. Hayden until 8.30, when, with Dr. Hayden, he took the train for Charleston.

Immediately upon his arrival in the city he was taken to the St. Francis Xavier infirmary, where Drs. Baker, Boykin and Hayden performed an operation on the hand and wrist in an effort to save it from eventual amputation. The physicians think that their efforts were successful, and that all danger of blood poison has been removed. But it is said by them that if the slightest sign of poison is shown the hand must be cut off.

Mr. Wallace bore his intense suffering very bravely and never complained from the time of the accident. He is well known in Charleston and has a host of friends, who will be very sorry to hear of the accident which has befallen him. He is a prominent member of several fraternal lodges, including the Elks, Knights of Pythias and Masons.—News and Courier, Dec. 7.

Mr. Wallace is a brother of Messrs. R. B. and P. J. Wallace, now of Newberry. This accident is the more distressing to the family owing to the grief already existing from the very recent death of Mrs. P. J. Wallace.

Mr. Wallace Improved.

According to the latest reports from the St. Francis Xavier infirmary, it is thought that the amputation of the left hand of Mr. J. V. Wallace, of this city, who shot himself accidentally day before yesterday while on a deer hunt near Summerville, may not be necessary.

Mr. Wallace was hunting with some friends, and had been placed on a stand. At the time of the accident, he was sitting on a log, accompanied only by his 5-year-old son. Both barrels of his gun were cocked, and one of them was discharged in an inexplicable manner.

His left hand and wrist were horribly torn, and he was brought to the city night before last. An operation was at once performed, and he has been under constant medical attention since then. It is thought now that all danger of blood poison has been eliminated, and that in time he will fully regain the use of his injured hand. Mr. Wallace is the manager of the Charleston branch of the Cable company, and is well known and liked here.

MASONS TO MEET SOON.

Grand Lodge Convenes Tuesday in Charleston—Important Matters Await Action.

Election of a grand secretary, to succeed the late Jacob T. Barron, of Columbia, and a grand treasurer, to succeed the late Gen. Zimmerman Davis, will occupy much of the attention of the delegates at the 134th annual communication of the grand lodge of Ancient Free Masons of South Carolina, beginning next Tuesday morning, in Charleston.

Recess Appointees.

The position of grand secretary is that of greatest power, for during 362 days of the year he is, practically, the grand lodge. Mr. Barron filled the post well, and at present the work is being ably handled under recess appointment by Mr. Walter M. Whitehead, of Charleston.

The other vacancy is also being filled under recess appointment by a Charlestonian, Dr. William H. Prieau.

Mr. James R. Johnson, of Charleston, is grand master; Hon. Geo. S. Mower, of Newberry, is deputy grand master; the grand wardens, senior and junior, are Messrs. Geo. T. Bryan, of Greenville, and R. A. Cooper, of Laurens.

Physical Perfection.

The South Carolina grand lodge is the oldest body of its class in the United States. It has always enforced and it still enforces some of the ancient rules of Masonry more strictly than other grand lodges. For instance, the doctrine of physical perfection has been retained, one who has lost so much as the tip of a little finger being ineligible for membership. Efforts have been made from time to time to secure a relaxation of this regulation and the movement will be revived at the Charleston meeting.

Orphans' Home.

More than $50,000 is now in hand for the establishment of the proposed Masonic home or orphanage and the trustees will have an interesting report to make.

Between 225 and 250 delegates will attend the meeting. Low railroad rates have been granted. The communication will last through two days only.

COLLECTION OF TOWN TAXES.

Notice is hereby given that the tax books for the Town of Newberry, S. C., will be opened from the 15th day of October to the 30th day of November, 1910, both inclusive. A penalty of 10 per cent. will be added after November 30.
